

Victorian Rural Clinical Network for Unintended Pregnancy and Abortion - March Meeting -

Who should register to attend?

The network is open to all practitioners working in rural locations and metropolitan practitioners supporting rural workforce development.

What is the focus of this meeting?

The first meeting for 2018 will be facilitated by Dr Paddy Moore, Head of Choices Clinic at the Women's Hospital. The meeting agenda will include:

- Case studies for trouble shooting complications
- Case study from a rural community health service on MToP process and contraception take-up
- Further agenda items will be confirmed prior to the meeting

When:

Tuesday 27 March 2018

Time:

6pm - 7pm

Location:

Attend via videoconference or at a Murray PHN Regional Site (select when registering)

More information:

Contact Kylie Stephens,
CERSH
kylies@unimelb.edu.au
03 57201705

REGISTER HERE:

www.cersh.com.au/event/clinicalnetwork-marchmeet

The Clinical Network is coordinated by CERSH in partnership with:

the women's
the royal women's hospital
victoria

phn
MURRAY

An Australian Government Initiative